Programs for Students with Intensive Needs in Texas

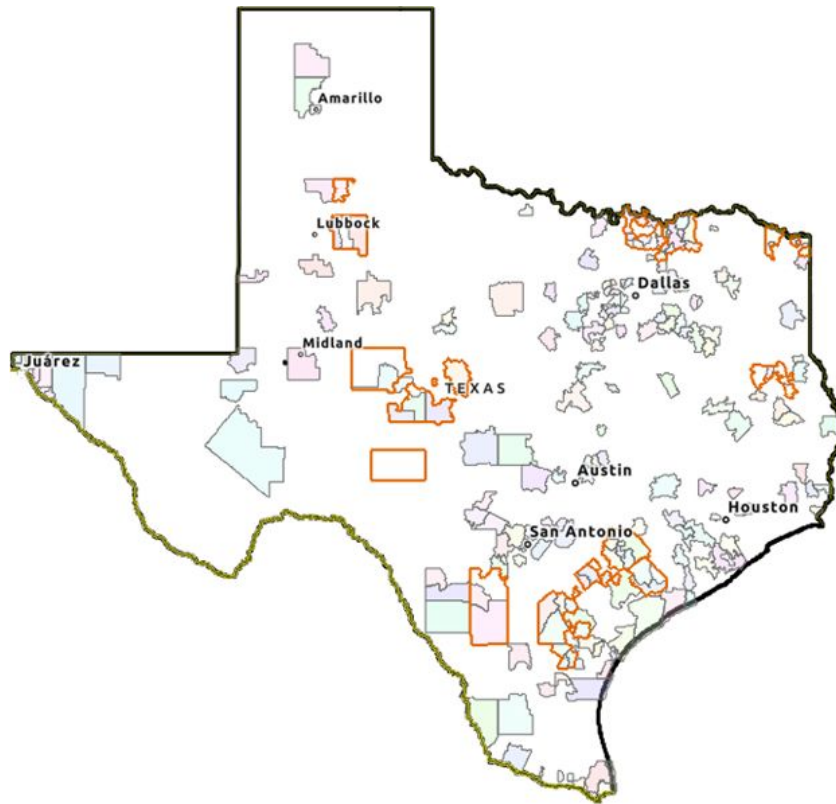

- The intent of the survey is to obtain information on where programs for students with intensive needs are located.
- For the purposes of this survey, think of “students with intensive needs” as students with:
 - Autism Spectrum Disorder,
 - Intellectual/Cognitive Impairment, and/or
 - an Emotional/Behavioral Disability.
- In addition, these students also require a more restrictive setting for most or all of their day to have their educational needs met.

Data Collection for the Map

- Each Spring, every SPED Director in the state will be asked to complete a survey to update their program information.
- In addition to asking questions about their programs, we want to find out about their interest in partnering with other districts, sharing resources, etc.
